

THE CEDAR RIVER WATERSHED
INSTITUTE INVITES YOU TO:

Stroll ...

ON A WALKING TOUR OF HISTORIC CEDAR FALLS TOWNSITE

Step inside the past and take a stroll through Cedar Falls; historic townsite and birthplace of Seattle City Light. Explore the remaining houses and discover the stories of those who worked, lived and grew up in this unique setting.

Featuring:

- ◆ Linda Carlson, Author, Company Towns of the PNW
- ◆ Friends of the Cedar River Watershed
- ◆ Seattle Public Utilities Naturalists and volunteers

Who: Everyone (strolling-all ages, some programs age 10+)
Historical groups and organizations

When: Saturday, September 25, 2010 6:00-8:30 PM
Sunday, September 26, 2010 5:00-7:30 PM

Cost: FREE!

Drop-in, no registration required.

Wear good walking shoes and carry a flashlight.
Walk or take the shuttle from the Education Center.
Round trip walk 1.5 miles.

For more information:

crwprograms@seattle.gov
(206) 233-1515 from Seattle
(425) 831-6780 from North Bend
Discover more at www.seattle.gov/util/

Senior/historical groups, bring your own bus.
Call for more information.

CEDAR RIVER
WATERSHED
EDUCATION CENTER

FRIENDS OF
THE CEDAR RIVER WATERSHED